This is what a noted Newspaper said about this when they were in Atlanta on the 10th of last February.

TUSKEGEE BAND WINS.

"Tuskegee Band Takes Atlanta" Atlanta, Feb. 13th.
"The sensation of the year took place here last Friday afternoon, when fifty (50) soldier like youths from Tuskegee Institute comprising the Institute Band landed at the Terminal Station. It was like a holiday. The crowd all races and creeds, surged into the station, blocking the passage. Mounted police and headed by the chief himself could scarcely open the way for the band to pass. Out in the street the band struck up

"Old Dixie, white and black alike forgot their races and prejudices. The white clapped their hands, waved their hats in the air, and then slyly drew forth their handkerchiefs and wiped their eyes, while the colored people stirred by the music and buoyed consciousness that this was their band, screamed and whistled and shouted to a point of madness. Along the streets business was suspended and even on grave White Hall Street clerks mounted on barrels and dry goods boxes shouted and frantically waved their hats and handkerchiefs to the tune of old "Dixie." At the Auditorium when the band arrived, 2,000 people were seated. 8,000 tickets were sold, and a wild crowd outside clamoring for more tickets. Sixty ushers could not seat them. The Auditorium was crowded beyond its capacity."

A CHURCH THAT DOES THINGS.

The Proceeds of the Entertainment Go for the Good of the Colored People of Nashville, Tenn.—All for the Public Good.

Bethel A. M. E. Church and its pastor have decided to try to do something to better the condition of the girls and women who are toiling night and day for a livelihood at very low wages. Not by fostering labor unions or strikes, but they wish to put in reach of the girls and women who are at work every day, the information pertaining to their work that is now being taught in nearly all the colleges and high schools—Domestic Science. A good many of our young people do not know that a good many of the best white women are being taught along this line every day. If this is important enough for rich people to learn, if it is good enough for wealthy ladies with hired servants to take lessons in cooking, etc., why not teach it to our girls who have to make a living that way, and thereby give them an opportunity to get more for their work?

Bethel Church wants to have a reading room, a library, a gymnasium, a model kitchen, a bath, a sewing department, a manicuring department, a kindergarten, an employment bureau, ladies' parlor, a trouble department and supply and homes for young girls who come from surrounding villages here to work, thereby keeping them from running on the many moral works existing in a city like this. And we are anxious to operate a mission department. Now Bethel has selected a field all by herself and asks for fraternal co-operation. This we realize is a very stupendous task and cannot be put in operation in a day, but we are satisfied to begin, hoping to succeed by herculean efforts and perseverance. So a great many are of the cause.

Popular Price for Admission.

The admission price is very reasonable indeed—25 cents to general admission 50 cents for reasonable seats. It is really worth any man's dollar to hear these students from the greatest Negro school on earth.

Contest On.

Twenty-five ($25.00) will be given to the person selling the most tickets over one hundred (100) and then ten cents out of every dollar's worth of tickets sold will go to the church or lodge whichever they desire. All person selling must be sure to report promptly at 6:00 o'clock at the Auditorium May 12, 1911. The management will not tolerate any ticket selling around the door of the Auditorium. Do not tear your tickets, be sure to bring them to the door whole.

Tickets on Sale at the Following Places.

Mr. Frank Wise' Drug Store, on west side of Public Square; David J. Kuhn's Drug Store, corner Twelfth avenue and Cedar street; People's Savings Bank, 419 Cedar street; Harry Markle Pawnshop, 403 Public Square; Willie Robinson's barber-shop, on Cedar street; Dr. Burrus' Drug Store, corner Ninth avenue and Cedar street; New Port Cafe, Corner Ninth avenue and Cedar street.

Churches and Lodges.

It is very gratifying to note that the churches and lodges are co-operating in this movement. This speaks well for the breadth of the ministers. Complimentary tickets have been or will be given to each pastor in the city. Some of the churches and lodges are selling tickets and they are receiving ten per cent commission.

Finally, Who Are Coming?

Answer: Everybody! Buy your tickets early and be sure to come early to avoid the rush. The doors will open at seven o'clock. Performance begins at 8:15. You can get seats both up and down stairs.

The Outlook.

The outlook for a record-breaking audience is exceedingly bright. Several thousand tickets already sold. It looks as if every ticket will be sold before Prof. N. Clark Smith and his famous band arrive.

Five thousand tickets in the hands of ticket sellers now and they are selling them now, not going to sell them. The crowd will be accommodated. Come.

PROPERTY OF AN EX-SLAVE.

Memphis, Tenn., April 28.—(Special)—Involving the property rights of ex-slaves, the state of Tennessee, through Attorney-General Estes, has filed a bill in chancery against unknown heirs of Susan Ann Reilly for sale of real estate which, it is claimed, has reverted to the state by escheat. Susan Ann Reilly, it is said, died in 1874, owning lots of the Canovan subdivision, at Driver street and Railroad avenue. The woman's husband took possession and it afterwards passed through several hands, a portion being sold for taxes. It is claimed in the bill that Susan Ann Reilly was never legally married, and that all next of kin were of slave marriage and ex-slaves. It is therefore claimed that the property be sold and the proceeds used for churches and schools.

MEMBER OF PRESS FRATERNITY HONORED IN NORFOLK, VA.

Special to the Globe: Norfolk, Va., April 27.—One of the prominent events of the season among the professional and business men of this section was a "stag" given at Mt. Vernon Hotel the 22nd inst., by the newspaper fraternity in honor of Mr. Geo. Francis King, a benedict and Norfolk boy. This affair was quite auspicious and was promoted by Mr. P. B. Young, the brilliant editor of the Journal and Guide, and one who has been a great factor in bringing about a number of reforms for the uplift of the race in Norfolk, and who is regarded as one of the leading editors of the race.

Editor Young, who was toastmaster and who presided with his usual grace, eloquently introduced the various speakers of the evening. Among the brilliant galaxy of professional men who spoke on civic, economic and racial questions were Dr. J. E. Mills, Rev. Geo. Jones, Dr. Byrd, Attorney W. H. C. Brown and Mr. Cheatham Young. In his introduction the toastmaster paid a tribute to the honored. He reviewed the struggles and the ultimate success of Mr. King and spoke of the obstacles the colored man has to surmount in trying to "make good" in the journalistic realm, especially the field occupied by the ambitious men of the other race.

In responding to the various toasts, Mr. King showed that he was affected by the introduction of Editor Young and related various instances where he had suffered his efforts to make his aspirations concrete achievements. He cited occasions when he was filling assignments for Associated Press papers where attempts were made to cast reflections upon the race, and by his having assignments he presented facts which reflected credit upon the race.

The menu for the evening was fit for any modern epicurean. This affair will lend impetus to a number of movements for the uplift of the race in this section. Among the many social events given in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. F. King were receptions by Mr. and Mrs. Geo. King, the parents of the groom, and a card party by Miss Anna Isbel, principal of one of the graded schools in this city. Miss Katherine Howe, who became the bride of Mr. King April 19th, is from one of the leading families of Wilmington and one of the leading trained nurses in North Carolina.

INVITATION EXTENDED.

To the Officers and Members of the B. Y. P. U. and Sunday-School Convention of Tennessee:

You are cordially invited, while attending the State Convention, which is to be held in Nashville, June 28th to July 2nd, to visit our publishing plant during business hours, which are from 8 a. m. to 5 p. m. each day except Saturdays and Sundays. On Saturdays we close at twelve o'clock during the months of June, July and August. You are also invited to hold one of your sessions in the chapel of the Publishing House, located at the corner of Second avenue, North, and Locust street. Many of you have been patronizing the Publishing House for years, but have never been through the establishment.

We hope you can arrange to visit us in a body so that we can show you through every department where you can see just how literature starts, from the editorial department in manuscript form and is turned out from the mailing room, addressed, wrapped and ready for the post-office.
